EXECUTIVE CLOSE PROTECTION

We provide close protection to 'at risk' individuals in both covert and overt roles.

Our services include risk assessment and event planning, provision of executive armoured vehicles and personal/medical protection officers. We also provide residential protection for our clients and their families.

All of our staff hold the close protection SIA licence. We ensure that they possess the interpersonal skills to gel with our clients, gain their trust and exceed their expectations.

We encourage all of our clients to participate in the selection of their team to make sure we achieve the "right fit" for them.

We also provide close protection to clients wishing to protect a specific asset. We provide this service anywhere in the world and have extensive experience of operating in hostile environments.

We identify risks and neutralise threats.
Our clients include sports teams,
business executives, foreign dignitaries, celebrities and their families.

We understand that each client requires a bespoke service to suit their own particular needs and lifestyle. We identify risks and neutralise threats.

Our clients include sports teams, business executives, foreign dignitaries, celebrities and their families.

We possess the skills to effectively deal with the secondary concerns; including public perception, media scrutiny, moles, bugging and surveillance.
